Background

Julia Gutenbrunner joined SAXINGER in Vienna as an associate in February 2023.

After completing her law degree (Mag. iur. 2022), she completed her judicial clerkship at the District Court of Amstetten and the Public Prosecutor's Office in St. Pölten.

During her studies she was able to gain several years of professional experience in a law firm. Furthermore, she already completed an internship at SAXINGER in Linz as part of the "practice4jus" program as well as several internships at an internationally renowned company located in Austria.
