

Dr. Christian Reichmann

LL.M. (Wellington)
Attorney at Law
Partner

Contact details

Osnabrück
T +49 541 3245-176
F +49 541 3245-100
christian.reichmann@schindhelm.com

Main areas

- Banking and Finance
- Corporate
- M&A
- Contract Law and Standard Terms and Conditions
- Sales

Background

Christian Reichmann is a lawyer at and partner of Schindhelm Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft bmH in Osnabrück since 2018.

After his accreditation in 2011 he has worked in the Düsseldorf office of Hogan Lovells International LLP until the end of 2017 specializing in M&A transactions as well as corporate law.

Christian Reichmann studied law at the University of Osnabrueck where he also wrote his doctoral theses and worked as research assistant at the Institute for Trade Law and Corporate Law (Prof. Dr. Andreas Fuchs).

In 2008 Christian Reichmann completed his Master of Law (LL.M.) at the Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand.

Expertise

Christian Reichmann advises local and international credit institutions and financial services providers in respect of German supervisory and distribution law.

Moreover, he comprehensively advises small and medium sized companies in respect of general corporate and commercial law.

References

- Advising the shareholders of a leading car component supplier regarding the intended sale of the company by way of an auction.
- Advising a leading Japanese car manufacturer regarding the intended sale of its captive credit institution.
- Issuing expert opinions on potential personal liability of managing directors; including corporate investigations and enforcement of respective claims.
- Advising credit institutions, financial services providers and insurers in respect of ownership control procedures, the appointment of managing directors and disputes with the competent supervisory authorities.

Languages

German, English