Background

Graduated in Law from the Catholic University of Valencia in 2016. She studied a master's degree in access to the legal profession and then a master's degree in specialisation in taxation in the research field at the University of Valencia.

Since September 2018 she has been part of Lozano Schindhelm's team, first in the Tax Department and currently in the Financial Accounting and Reporting department.

Expertise

Rebeca Ors has been a practising lawyer since 2019 and specialises in the area of tax law.

She has combined her professional career with her academic training, from the beginning of her studies with the Degree in Administration and Finance, complementing it later with higher studies.

Before joining Lozano Schindhelm, she worked for several national law firms, which allowed her to gain a multi-faceted and global vision in the field of law and tax advice. Currently, she advises both individuals and national and international companies in the fields of taxation and accounting.
