Háttér

Wolfgang Kronawetter has worked as a lawyer for SCWP Schindhelm in Graz since 2014.

Between 2010 and 2013 he was an associate at a law firm in Styria and between 2013 and 2014 at a law firm in Vienna.

After completing his law degree at the University of Graz in 2009 (Mag.iur.), he completed his court intership at the District Court and Regional Court in Graz.

In 2012 he passed the bar examination in Graz.

Szaktudás

Wolfgang Kronawetter's practice focuses on civil law. The main fields of his work are out-of-court and litigation proceedings in the areas of general tort law, warranty law, traffic law, transport law and medical malpractice law.

In the field of medical malpractice, Wolfgang Kronawetter has been representing established doctors – especially dentists – in court proceedings for many years. In addition, Wolfgang Kronawetter represents a large number of haulage companies in connection with the assertion of claims for damages arising from traffic accidents. Furthermore, Wolfgang Kronawetter represents both policyholders and insurance companies in connection with the assertion of or defence against claims arising from insurance law matters or insurance contracts – in particular with regard to actions for coverage and the defence against claims.
